Discover God's amazing purpose and potential for your life.

discover is the path to experience growth and fulfillment in your life by going through steps that will propel you towards God's plan for your life. Our ultimate goal is to see you successfully connect with God and a group of people where together your life can impact the lives of others.

Three Things to Discover

Discover Propel: Learn the story behind Propel, who we are, and what our vision is.

Discover Purpose: Realize and understand your personality and gifts and how they determine your purpose in life.

Discover Teams: Connect with people that will help you live out your purpose.

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of his calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe.

Ephesians 1:17-18

Our Story

Pastor Nick and Tori Newman dreamed of creating

A church where everyone felt _____.

A church where it would be _____ not endured.

With the help of the Dream Team (people committed to the vision and values) Propel Church began on September 20th, 2015 in Mount Pleasant High School. From the beginning, Propel Church has focused on reaching out to the un-churched community by sharing the life-giving message of Jesus Christ. This is why we hold Sunday experiences. We invite you to see for yourself how exciting church can be when the focus is simple and people are free to pursue God with passion!

Our Vision

I ask the God of our Master, Jesus Christ, the God of glory—to make you intelligent and discerning in knowing Him personally, your eyes focused and clear, so that you can see exactly what it is He is calling you to do, grasp the immensity of this glorious way of life He has for His followers. Ephesians 1:17-19 MSG

The God of the universe has made you some big promises. These promises remain at the core of His heart and have never changed. They are the key to your fulfillment and the plans He has for you.

At Propel Church, we want you to accomplish four things:

1- _____ through Sunday Experiences

2- _____ in Propel Groups

3- _____ through Discover

4- _____ in Teams

Know God

I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit Romans 15:13

We consider reaching people who don't know God one of our greatest _____.

Sunday _____ are for people of all stages on their walk with God, however we gear them towards people who don't yet know God.

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in Him? And how can they believe in Him if they have never heard about Him? And how can they hear about Him unless someone tells them? Romans 10:13-14

Sunday experiences should be a place of _____ and _____.

"I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord.'" Psalms 122:1

Find Freedom

Life change happens in _____.

We were not made to do life _____.

Propel Groups have one purpose: to bring people _____.

You know that I have not hesitated to preaching anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and house to house. Acts 20:20

spring: 12 weeks

summer: 6 weeks

fall: 12 weeks

Groups meet in three semesters every year, providing the ability for you to be in the right group during the right _____.

Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. James 5:16

Discover Your Purpose

Our hope is that you take a step towards understanding how your uniquely-designed personality coupled with the spiritual gifts God has given you, help reveal a fulfilling path to your destiny.

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago. Ephesians 2:10 NLT

The Goal

To discover how my _____ helps to reveal my _____.

To discover the amazing _____ of my life.

For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; Romans 12:4-6 ESV

Discovering your Personality

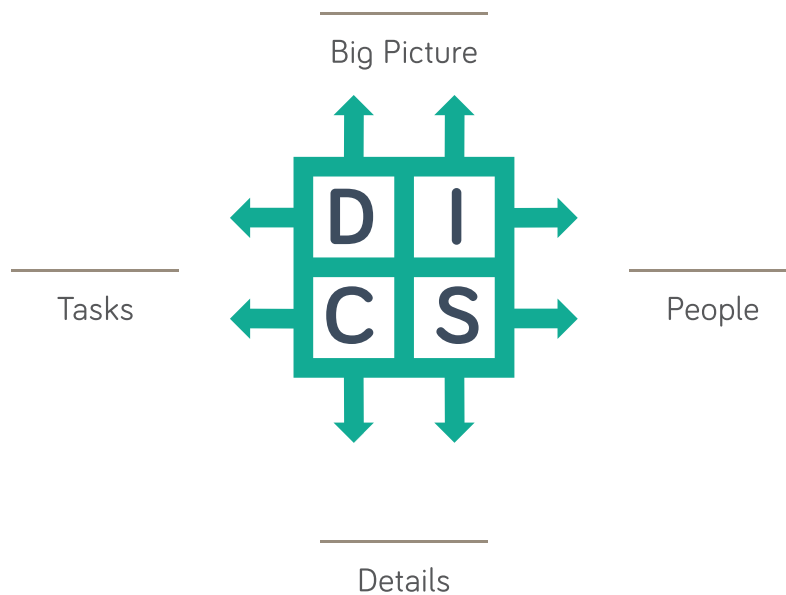

There are four main elements that help develop your personality

1- _____ History

2- _____

3- _____

4- _____

D We are direct and decisive. We are risk-takers and problem-solvers. We are more concerned with completing tasks and winning than we are with gaining approval from people. Though the internal drive tends to make us insensitive to those around us, “D”s are not afraid to challenge the status quo, and we thrive when it comes to developing new things. We need discipline to excel, and respond to direct confrontation. Our greatest fear is to be taken advantage of, and even despite our possible weaknesses—which include an aversion to routine, a tendency to overstep authority, an argumentative nature, and a habit of taking on too much—we place a high value on time and use our innovative thinking to accomplish difficult tasks and conquer challenges.

D/I We are curious conclusers who place emphasis on the bottom line and work hard to reach our goals. We are more determined than we are inspirational, yet our high expectations and standards for ourselves and those around us typically cause us to make quite an impact, motivating others to follow us. We have an array of interests and can become distracted by taking on too many projects. We often need to focus, prioritize, and simply slow down. Because we thrive on activity and forward motion, we like to accomplish tasks through a large number of people.

Joshua (Joshua 1), Noah (Genesis 6-9), Sarah (Genesis 16, 1 Peter 3:6)

D/S We are achievers with an ability to persevere. We are more active than passive, but possess a kind of calm sensitivity and steadiness that makes us good leaders. We seem to be people-oriented but can easily be dominant and decisive when it comes to tasks and project planning. We strive to accomplish goals with fierce determination that comes from strong internal drive, but we could benefit from contemplative and conservative thinking as well as spending more time focusing on relationships.

Daniel (Daniel 1-6), Job (Job 1:5, James 5:11), Martha (Luke 10:38-42)

D/C We are challengers that can either be determined students or defiant critics. Being in charge is important to us, yet we care little about what others think as long as we get the job done. We have a great deal of foresight and examine every avenue to find the best solution. We prefer to work alone. Though we fear failure and the lack of influence, we are motivated by challenges and can often be excellent administrators. We can benefit from learning to relax and paying more attention to people.

Malachi (Malachi 4), Nathan (2 Samuel 12:1-13), Nahum (Nahum 1-3)

I We are inspiring and impressive. Enthusiastic, optimistic, impulsive, and emotional—we tend to be creative problem-solvers and excellent encouragers. We often have a large number of friends, but we can become more concerned with approval and popularity than with getting results. Our greatest fear is rejection, but we thrive when it comes to motivating others. Our positive sense of humor helps us negotiate conflicts. Though we can be inattentive to details and poor listeners, we can be great peacemakers and effective teammates when we control our feelings and minimize our urge to entertain and be the center of attention. We value lots of human touch and connection.

I/D We are persuaders who are outgoing and energetic. We enjoy large groups and use our power of influence to attain respect and convince people to follow our lead. Sometimes we can be viewed as fidgety and nervous, but it comes from our need to be a part of challenges that have variety, freedom, and mobility. We could benefit from learning to look before we leap and spending more time being studious and still. We make inspiring leaders and know how to get results from and through people.
John the Baptist (Luke 3), Peter (Matthew 16 and 26, Acts 3), Rebekah (Genesis 24)

I/S We are influential counselors who love people, and it's no surprise that people love us. We live to please and serve, and tend to be good listeners. Looking good and encouraging others is important to us, as is following through and being obedient. We often lack in the area of organization and can be more concerned with the people involved than we are with the task at hand. However, we can be center stage or behind the scenes with equal effectiveness, and we shine when it comes to influencing and helping others.
Barnabas (Acts 4, 9, 11-15), Elisha (1 Kings 19, 2 Kings 2-3), Nicodemus (John 3, 7, 19)

I/C We are inspiring yet cautious assessors who are excellent communicators through the combination of concerned awareness and appreciation of people. We excel in determining ways to improve production. We tend to be impatient and critical, and can also be overly persuasive and too consumed by the desire to win. We like to work inside the box, and we could benefit from trying new things and caring less about what others think. This personality type often possesses a gift for teaching; we are generally dependable when it comes to paying attention to details and getting the job done.
Miriam (Exodus 15-21), Ezra (Ezra 7-8), Shunammite Woman (2 Kings 4:8-37)

S We are steady and more reserved. We do not like change, and thrive in secure, non-threatening environments. We are often friendly and understanding as well as good listeners and loyal workers who are happy doing the same job consistently. With an incredible ability to forgive, reliable and dependable “S”s tend to make the best friends. Our greatest fear, however, is loss of security, and our possible weaknesses naturally include not only resistance to change, but also difficulty adjusting to it. We can also be too sensitive to criticism and unable to establish priorities. In order to avoid being taken advantage of, we need to be stronger and learn how to say “no.” We also like to avoid the limelight, but when given an opportunity to genuinely help others, we will gladly rise to the occasion. We feel most valued when we have truly helped someone.

S/D We are quiet leaders who can be counted on to get the job done. We perform better in small groups and do not enjoy speaking in front of crowds. Though we can be soft- and hard-hearted at the same time, we enjoy close relationships with people, being careful not to dominate them. Challenges motivate us, especially ones that allow them to take a systematic approach. We tend to be determined, persevering through time and struggles. We benefit from encouragement and positive relationships. Martha (Luke 10:38-42), Job (Job 1:5, James 5:11)

S/I We are inspirational counselors who exhibit warmth and sensitivity. Tolerant and forgiving, we have many friends because they accept and represent others well. Our social nature and desire to be likable and flexible makes us inclined to be overly tolerant and non-confrontational. We will benefit from being more task-oriented and paying more attention to detail. Kind and considerate, we include others and inspire people to follow us. Words of affirmation go a long way with us, and with the right motivation, we can be excellent team players.

Mary Magdalene (Luke 7:36-47), Barnabas (Acts 4, 9, 11-15), Elisha (1 Kings 19, 2 Kings 2-13)

S/C We are diplomatic and steady, as well as detail-oriented. Stable and contemplative, we like to weigh the evidence and discover the facts to come to a logical conclusion. More deliberate, we prefer to take our time, especially when the decision involves others. Possible weaknesses include being highly sensitive and unable to handle criticism, and we also need to be aware of the way we treat others. Operating best in precise and cause-worthy projects, we can be a peacemaker; this makes us a loyal team member and friend.

Moses (Exodus 3, 4, 20, 32), John (John 19:26-27), Eliezer (Genesis 24)

C We are compliant and analytical. Careful and logical lines of thinking drive us forward, and accuracy is a top priority. We hold high standards and value systematic approaches to problem solving. Though we thrive when given opportunities to find solutions, we tend to ignore the feelings of others and can often be critical and downright crabby. Verbalizing feelings is difficult for us, but when we are not bogged down in details and have clear-cut boundaries, we can be big assets to the team by providing calculated “reality checks.” Our biggest fear is criticism, and our need for perfection is often a weakness, as is our tendency to give in when in the midst of an argument. However, we are thorough in all activities and can bring a conscientious, even-tempered element to the team that will provide solid grounding. We value being correct.

C/I We are attentive to the details. We tend to impress others by doing things right and stabilizing situations. Not considered aggressive or pushy, we enjoy both large and small crowds. Though we work well with people, we are sometimes too sensitive to what others think about us and our work. We could benefit from being more assertive and self-motivated. Often excellent judges of character, we easily trust those who meet our standards. We are moved by genuine and enthusiastic approval as well as concise and logical explanations.

Miriam (Exodus 15-21, Numbers 12:1-15), Ezra (Ezra 7, 8)

C/S We are systematic and stable. We tend to do one thing at a time— and do it right. Reserved and cautious, we would rather work behind the scenes to stay on track; however, we seldom take risks or try new things and naturally dislike sudden changes in our environments. Precisionists to the letter, we painstakingly require accuracy and fear criticism, which we equate to failure. Diligent workers, our motivation comes from serving others.

Esther (Esther 4), Zechariah (Luke 1), Joseph (Matthew 1:1-23)

C/D We are cautious and determined designers who are consistently task-oriented and very aware of problems. Sometimes viewed as insensitive, we do care about individual people but have a difficult time showing it. We often feel we are the only ones who can do the job the way it needs to be done, but because of our administrative skills, we are able to bring plans for change and improvements to fruition. We have a tendency to be serious and could benefit from being more optimistic and enthusiastic. Despite our natural drive to achieve, we should concentrate on developing healthy relationships and simply loving people.

Bezalel (Exodus 35:30-36, 8, 37:1-9), Jochebed (Exodus 1:22-2:4), Jethro (Exodus 2,18)

Discovering your Spiritual Gifts

“Now about spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.” 1 Corinthians 12:1

Spiritual Gifts are not:

1- _____

We all have natural abilities that we’ve learned from those around us regardless of Christian faith. Many times, our natural abilities and strengths are redeemed by the Lord to become spiritual gifts.

2- _____

We are all called to have character and our gifts should produce the nature of Jesus Christ in each person. A person should not say he has the “gift of peace” when we are all encouraged to develop that characteristic. Spiritual gifts offer opportunities for us to exemplify Christ.

3- _____

Spiritual gifts often lead to titles or positions, but a person may have the gift without the role or the role without the gift. Regardless, we should serve whenever we are given the opportunity. Working in the area of your gifting will allow you to “be” the person that God has called you to be rather than just “doing” good things.

4- _____

Spiritual gifts are endowments given by God to His people for accomplishing His purpose on the earth. Spiritual gifts are given for the glory of God.

“Follow the way of love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts... try to excel in gifts that build up the church.” 1 Corinthians 14:1

How do I receive Spiritual Gifts?

- Accept Jesus Christ as Lord of your life.
- Acquire faith and truth in the area of spiritual gifts.
- Apply yourself to learning about spiritual gifts.
- Ask for the Lord to give you spiritual gifts.

“Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go! It will be done just as you believed it would.” And his servant was healed at that very hour.” Matthew 8:13

USING YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Congratulations on discovering your spiritual gifts! God uniquely created you and gave you these gifts for a reason. - Do it.

We make a difference through _____ and outreach
God has a place where your unique _____ and passions can impact the lives of others.

For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." Ephesians 2:10

Dream Teams

At Propel, we call those who serve, the _____.
We believe that teamwork makes the dream work and together people are propelled towards Jesus!

We believe that everyone has _____ they can do to impact the lives of others. We have made it easy to make a difference by developing a variety teams for you to serve on. Examine your personality, your purpose, and your schedule and decide which team suits you best.

Propel Kids: This team creates an environment where children are consistently exposed to the real love of Jesus. They intentionally invest in the lives of our children through worship, videos, skits, Propel Groups, greeting, games and more.

Guest Experience: From the streets to the seats, this energetic team connects with guests by offering a hot cup of coffee and a warm welcome.

Propel Worship & Production: Through vocals, instruments, or audio engineering, the worship team prepares the way for our guests to encounter the presence of the living God. Production reaches thousands by delivering the Word and worship through camera, lighting, and other visual elements.

Administrative Team: This team utilizes their gifts of administration and organization to serve alongside staff and Dream Team Leaders.

Events Team: Church-wide events are creatively planned and energetically hosted by this team who places priority on valuing people and serving with excellence.

Propel Students: Join the team that is building the next generation - one dynamic worship experience, relevant Propel Group, impactful retreat, and life-changing mission trip at a time!

Online Experience Team: Online Experience - Similar to our Guest Experience Team, this team ensures the warm welcome of our guests online. By hosting watch parties, engaging in the comments, and sharing our content, this team makes the experience we create in person, available online.

Facilities Team: This team works behind the scenes to maintain a spirit of excellence with the building itself. From cleaning inside to landscape outside, this team ensures our facility looks its best for our guests.

Creative Team: This team interacts behind the scenes to create almost everything our guests see. Communications, creating and posting social content, graphic design, and video editing.

Full Dream team descriptions can be found in your appendix on page 31.

As A Member of the Dream Team:

We are all _____ Jesus!

Everything from our finances to website to worship music all comes back to this focus on putting Jesus at the center of what we do.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. Colossians 1:17 NIV

We _____ the ninety-nine!

We commit to experiences being focused on the unchurched feeling welcome and understanding that God will meet them right where they are.

So Jesus told them this story: If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do? Won't he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go to search for the one that is lost until he finds it? Luke 15:3-4 NLT

We _____ to community!

As a church, we value gathering with groups of people to grow in our relationship with God.

Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near. Hebrews 10:24-25 NLT

We serve _____!

As a church we believe giving our time so others can encounter Jesus is a worthy cause.

Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good. Love each other with genuine affection and take delight in honoring each other. Never be lazy, but work hard and serve the Lord enthusiastically. Rejoice in our confident hope. Be patient in trouble, and keep on praying. When God's people are in need, be ready to help them. Always be eager to practice hospitality. Romans 12:9-13 NLT

We _____ ourselves!

Spending time with God through reading and prayer helps cultivate a personal relationship with Him, and that is what He wants.

Why spend your money on food that does not give you strength? Why pay for food that does you no good? Listen to me, and you will eat what is good. You will enjoy the finest food. Isaiah 55:2 NLT

We are people of _____!

Honor doesn't show who the other person is, it shows who you are.

When we get together, I want to encourage you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged by yours. Romans 1:12

We _____ leaders!

Leadership is influence, and equipping God's people to build His church is what we are called to do.

Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ. This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ. Then we will no longer be immature like children. We won't be tossed and blown about by every wind of new teaching. We will not be influenced when people try to trick us with lies so clever they sound like the truth. Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church. He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love

Ephesians 4:11-16 NLT

We are _____!

Generosity begins at 11%. We are generous with our time, talent and money. As a church, we would never ask you to do more than we are willing to do. Each year we give at least 12% back to the community locally, nationally and internationally.

Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back. Luke 6:38 NLT

Next Steps

1- _____ an Owner

We don't do _____ we do Ownership.

Members have rights, owners have _____.

As owners we agree to:

Protect the _____ of our church:

- by acting in love toward other owners,
- by refusing to gossip,
- by following it's leaders

Live in complete harmony with each other - each with the attitude of Christ toward each other. Romans 15:5

Share the _____ of our church:

- by praying for its growth,
- by inviting the un-churched to attend
- by warmly welcoming those who visit

To the church...we always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers. 1 Thessalonians 1:1-2

Serve the _____ of my church:

- by discovering my gifts and talents
- by being equipped to serve by my pastors
- by developing a servant's heart

Serve one another with the particular gifts God has given each of you. 1 Peter 4:10

Support the _____ of my church:

- by attending church and Propel Groups faithfully
- by living a godly life
- by giving regularly

The full ownership agreement is in your appendix.

2- _____ a Group

Life change happens in groups.

Propel groups are listed online at propel.church/groups

3- _____ a Team

As Dream Team Members, we agree to:

- Be sincere, worthy of respect, and of a good reputation.
- Tithe regularly to Propel Church.
- Have a genuine desire to serve and minister to other people.
- Show honor to others in group dynamic.
